

Please tell me you've seen Terminator.

I believe I have.

Reagan as a killer robot?

Right character, wrong governor.

Ah, yup.

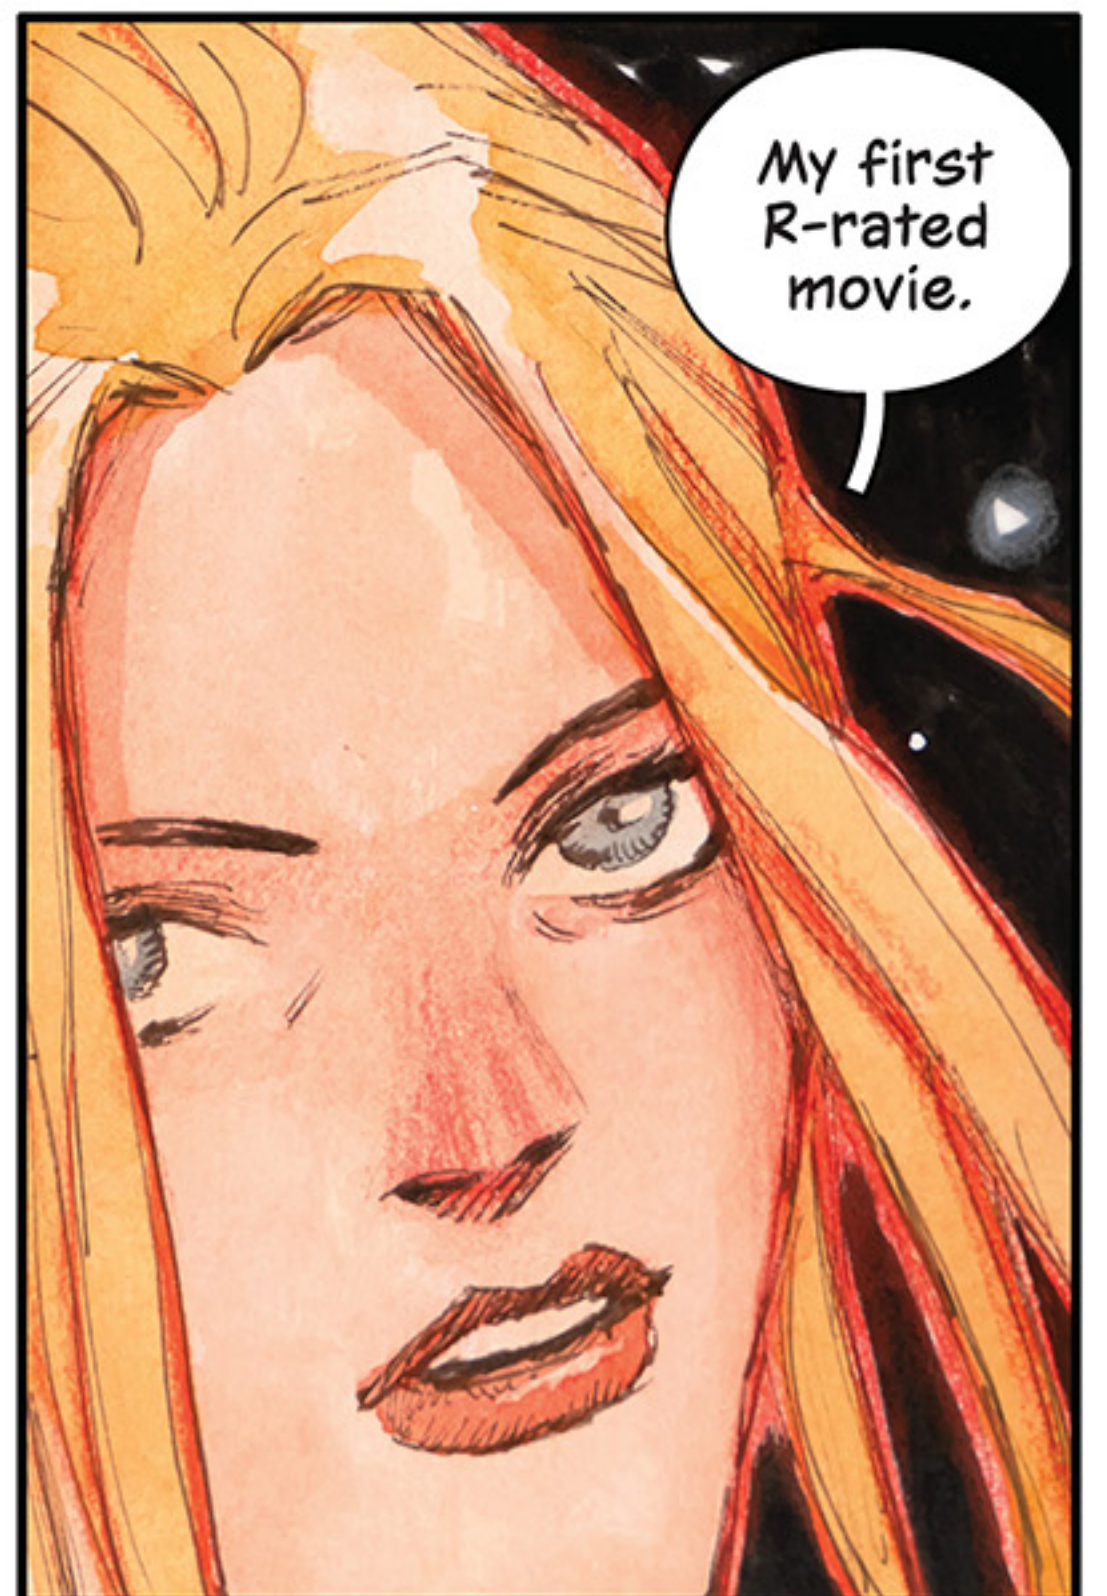

Didn't bother with the sequels, but I remember being intrigued by that first one.

Never can recall when the hell pictures incorporating time travel were in theaters though.

1985, maybe?

But I didn't see it until VHS.

My first R-rated movie.
